SHABBAT B'HAR-B'CHUKKOTAY

God tells Moses that after Israel reaches Canaan, the land shall observe a seventh year of rest, a Shabbat, and lie fallow. After seven sabbatical cycles, every fiftieth year, a Jubilee shall be declared. In this hallowed year, Israel will "proclaim liberty throughout the land, unto all its inhabitants." Property will revert to its original owner and slaves will be free.

"Observe My commandments," says God, and be rewarded, "reject My statutes," and suffer consequences. Yet despite this Tokhechah – this litany of dire warnings – God will not utterly reject Israel. God vows to remember the covenant made with Israel's ancestors.

MAY THEIR MEMORY be for a blessing

Join us for minyan on the date of your loved one's yahrzeit to pray with the community, hear their name read, and recite the mourner's kaddish. This occurs at services the evening before, as well as the morning and afternoon of the date of the yahrzeit. On Shabbat, all those observing a yahrzeit in the coming week are invited to share the name of their loved one.
